

23rd Annual Pork Pie Competition Results Traditional Class

1. Bolster Moor Farm Shop of Golcar, Huddersfield

2. Wilson's of Crossgate, Leeds

3. Broster's Farm Shop of Huddersfield

4. George Middlemiss of Otley

Artisan Class

1. E & R Grange of Slaithwaite, Huddersfield (pork and chicken)

2. Bolster Moor Farm Shop (pork and red pepper)

3. Robinson's Farm Shop of Northowram, Halifax (pork and sweet chilli)

4. Ingfield farm Shop of Southowram, Halifax (pork and apple)

Finalists in Traditional Section

Haigh's Farm Shop, Mirfield

B and M Collins and Sons, Cleckheaton

E & R Grange Slaithwaite, Huddersfield

Firth's Leeds and Wetherby

Keith Dyson Almondbury, Huddersfield

Ingfield Farm Shop Southowram, Halifax

Marshall's Bakers Bradford

Robinson's Farm Shop Northowram, Halifax

Howgate and Farrar, Leeds

Ham Corner Todmorden

Elite Meats, Harrogate.

Finalists in Artisan Class

Broster's Farm Shop, Lindley Moor Huddersfield

B&M Collins and Sons Cleckheaton

Wilson's, Crossgate, Leeds

G Middlemiss and Son, Otley

Firth's, Garforth, Leeds

Ingfield Farm Shop

Marshall's Bakers, Bradford

Peter Roche, Bridgeford, Nottinghamshire

Howgate and Farrar, Leeds

Ham Corner, Market Hall, Todmorden.

A special mention goes to Debbie Collinge of the Lord Nelson Public House Luddenden. Debbie baked a huge pulled pork pie. The Organising Committee tucked in to it after the event. It was acclaimed as delicious by all the diners. Debbie's pie was a winner but could not be judged against the other entrants due to it's size.

To see pictures from the competition click &nbsp;HERE